The Limited Liability Company is organized exclusively for charitable purposes and is operated exclusively to further the charitable purpose of its member.

Each member of the Limited Liability Company shall be a qualifying organization. A qualifying organization is an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701(d) of the Revenue and Taxation Code and that qualifies for exemption under Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

“To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, this limited liability company is prohibited from merging or converting into a for-profit entity.”

The Limited Liability Company shall not transfer, directly or indirectly, any membership interest in the Limited Liability Company to any nonqualified person or entity.

The property of the Limited Liability Company is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes.

Upon dissolution, all assets shall be distributed to an organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214, and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701(d) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Any amendments to the Limited Liability Company's Articles of Organization or the equivalent legally recognized formative document under the laws of the jurisdiction where the entity is formed and to the operating agreement, must be consistent with Section 214.

The Limited Liability Company shall not distribute any assets to members who cease to be organizations described in Section 214.
