Service Of Now N.P. Corp.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under the section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. The business activity for said organization is as follows: It is designed primarily for those who have served their communities, including Veterans, Police, Firefighters, first responders, essential workers, clerical employees, teachers, and other professionals, in particular clients with brain injuries, mental health challenges, or PTSD. Many of these clients get easily overwhelmed and confused while handling paperwork and appointments that affect their health, housing, insurance, and income, and they desperately need caring assistants or caretakers to guide them and to help them stay on top of important deadlines. Providing patient assistants who understand and can help navigate those demanding complexities. We want to use the funds we receive to help pay for any necessary things that help keep our struggling clients fed, warmed, housed, trained, healthy, and safe, as well as to feel purposeful in ways that are satisfying and meaningful to them. As we grow, we hope to scale up the possibilities to build connections between our healing clients, to provide group housing in a peer to peer network setting where more experienced clients will feel comfortable mingling with and learning from others like themselves who are overcoming similar challenges, to be a source of inspiration and support for newcomers, and to help provide future job training opportunities and group therapy referrals.

No part of the net earnings of this organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, assets remaining shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
