This corporation is organized to provide project experience, professional development, mentorship, and networking opportunities to students interested in an interdisciplinary approach to engineering practice. The focus is on the field of Mechatronics, which integrates mechanical, electrical, and computer engineering. The organization's activities include but are not limited to, organizing student-led engineering projects, hosting mentorship programs, promoting education in Mechatronics, and facilitating participation in robotics competitions.

The corporation is committed to fostering an inclusive environment and does not discriminate in its membership, activities, or programming based on race, gender, age, discipline, or other characteristics.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes outlined in this article. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Upon dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes as defined under applicable laws or shall be distributed to the federal government or a state or local government for a public purpose.
