Attachment to Additional Statements - Page 1 of 1

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation or other governing instrument of this Corporation, during such period or periods, of time, if any, as this Corporation is treated as a "private foundation" pursuant to Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code: (i) the Corporation's income must be distributed at such time and in such manner so as not to subject this Corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and (ii) this Corporation is prohibited from (a) engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code); (b) retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code) which would subject this Corporation to tax under Section 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (c) making any investments in such manner so as to subject this Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; and (d) making any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code).

B. If any property of this Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to educational purposes, the purposes are educational purposes meeting the requirements of Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. If any of the property of this Corporation is distributed upon dissolution to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation with educational purposes, the purposes are educational purposes meeting the requirements of Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.
