Attachment to Articles of Organization (LLC-1)
DignityMoves Dignity Village LLC

7. This additional information is incorporated by this reference and is made a part of the Articles of Organization for DignityMoves Dignity Village LLC (the "Company"):

- A. The Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.
- B. The Company is organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property in compliance with California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701h for the use of the Company's member in furtherance of the exempt purpose of that member.
- C. The Company is operated exclusively to further the exempt charitable purpose of its sole member, DignityMoves, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation that is recognized as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, and qualifies for exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.
- D. Each member of the Company must be an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or under Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, and qualifies for exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.
- E. No transfer, whether direct or indirect, of any membership interest in the Company shall be made to any person or entity that is not a qualifying organization for purposes of the welfare exemption provided pursuant to California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214.
- F. The property of this Company is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes as that term is described in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214, Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d, and no part of the net income or assets of this Company shall ever inure to the benefit of any private persons.
- G. Upon the dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of this Company, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this Company, shall be distributed to its sole member, DignityMoves, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, provided that DignityMoves is then exempt from federal taxes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214.

If, at the time of dissolution, DignityMoves no longer exists, or is not then exempt from federal taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this Company shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- H. To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the welfare exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, the Company is prohibited from merging with, or converting into, a for-profit entity.
- I. Any amendments to these Articles of Organization or the operating agreement of the Company shall be consistent with California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214.
- J. The Company is prohibited from distributing any assets to any member(s) that ceases to be an organization described in California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214.
- K. These Articles of Organization are consistent with California law governing the Company and are enforceable at law and in equity.
