Additional Information to the Articles of Organization for DCDC Harding Way LLC

The following requirements are added to the Articles of Organization for DCDC Harding Way LLC, a California limited liability company (the "Company") in order to satisfy the organizational requirements for the welfare property tax exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue & Taxation Code ("Section 214"):

- (1) The Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.
- (2) The Company is operated exclusively to further the charitable purpose of its member.
- (3) Each member of the Company shall be a qualifying organization. A qualifying organization is: (i) an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code and qualifying for exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code; and (ii) government entities exempt from taxation under section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution.
- (4) The Company shall not transfer, directly or indirectly, any membership interest in the Company to any person or entity that is not a qualifying organization.
- (5) The property owned by the Company is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes.
- (6) Upon dissolution, all assets shall be distributed to an organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214, and which has established its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or under section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
- (7) Any amendments to the articles of organization and the operating agreement must be consistent with Section 214.
- (8) To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, this limited liability company is prohibited from merging or converting into a for-profit entity.
- (9) The Company shall not distribute any assets to members who cease to be qualifying organizations described in Section 214.
