The specific purpose of this corporation is to:

We are a political organization that advocates for the rights and interests of Foundational Black Americans (FBAs) in the United States. The party focuses on issues such as reparations, social justice, economic empowerment, and the promotion of a distinct identity for FBAs. It seeks to address systemic inequalities and uplift the community through policy changes and grassroots organizing. The Black Party aims to unify FBAs under a common cause and provide a platform for political representation and advocacy.
