Additional Statements

1. DURATION. The period of this Social Purpose Corporation's duration shall commence upon the date that these Articles of Incorporation ("Articles") are filed with the Secretary of State and shall continue in perpetuity.
2. REPEAL OF ARTICLES. The Social Purpose Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute and these Articles of Incorporation, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation. Whenever any vote of the holders of capital stock of the Corporation is required to amend or repeal any provision of these Articles of Incorporation, and in addition to any other vote of holders of capital stock that is required by these Articles of Incorporation or by law, such amendment or repeal shall require the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote on such amendment or repeal, and the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class, at a duly constituted meeting of stockholders called expressly for such purpose.
3. DIRECTOR LIABILITY: INDEMNITY OF AGENTS. The liability of the directors of this Social Purpose Corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law. This Social Purpose Corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of agents (as defined in Section 317 of the General Corporation Law of the State of California) for breach of duty to the Corporation and its shareholders through bylaw provisions or through agreements with agents, or both, in excess of the indemnification otherwise permitted by Section 317 of the General Corporation Law of the State of California, subject to the limits on such excess indemnification set forth in Section 204 of the General Corporation Law of the State of California. Any repeal or modification of the provisions of this Section 9 shall not adversely affect any rights or protections to which the corporation's directors, officers or agents were entitled prior to such repeal or modification. This Section 9 may not eliminate or limit the liability of directors (i) for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing and culpable violation of law, (ii) for acts or omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the social purpose corporation or its shareholders and its corporate purposes as expressed in these Articles, or that involve the absence of good faith on the part of the director, (iii) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit, (iv) for acts or omissions that show a reckless disregard for the director's duty to the social purpose corporation or its shareholders in circumstances in which the director was aware, or should have been aware, in the ordinary course of performing a director's duties, of a risk of serious injury to the social purpose corporation, its shareholders, or its corporate purposes as expressed in its articles, (v) for acts or omissions that constitute an unexcused pattern of inattention that amounts to an abdication of the director's duty to the social purpose corporation, its shareholders, or its corporate purposes as expressed in its articles pursuant to Section 2602, or (vi) under Section 310 or 2701 of the California Corporations Code.
