ARTICLE III

The name in the State of California of the Corporation's initial agent for service of process is:

C T Corporation System

ARTICLE IV

1. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

2. This Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for public purposes.

3. Specifically, and consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the Corporation is organized to conduct research and educational activities on subjects useful to the individual and beneficial to the community as a whole.

4. Consistent with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the Corporation is to have and exercise all powers conferred on nonprofit public benefit corporations by the laws of the State of California.

5. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein, and the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

6. In any taxable year in which the Corporation is a private foundation as described in Section 509(a) of the Code, the Corporation shall distribute its income for said period at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Code, and the Corporation shall not (i) engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, (ii) retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, (iii) make any investment in such manner as to subject the Corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code, or (iv) make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

ARTICLE V

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its incorporators, directors, officers, or any individual, except that the Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof.

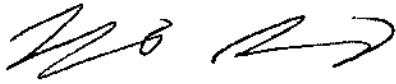

ARTICLE VI

Upon the dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed to such nonprofit foundations or corporations that are organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes as shall at that time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and satisfy the requirements of Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

ARTICLE VII

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred herein are granted subject to this reservation; provided, however, that no amendment shall authorize the Board of Directors to conduct the affairs of the Corporation in any manner or for any purpose which would cause it to lose its tax-exempt status under the provisions of the Code.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, for the purpose of forming a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law of the State of California, do make this certificate, hereby declaring and certifying that the facts stated are true, and accordingly have hereunto set my hand this 28th day of January, 2025.
