a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

- (a) This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the 1986, as amended (the “Code”).
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
- (d) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes meeting the requirements of California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214 and no part of the net income or assets of the corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.
- (e) On the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of this corporation, shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation, or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, and/or educational purposes meeting the requirements of California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 214 and which has established its tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
- (f) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles or other governing instruments of the corporation, during any such period or periods of time, if any, that this corporation is a “private foundation” pursuant to Section 509 of the Code: (i) the corporation’s income must be distributed in such a manner so as not to subject this corporation to tax under Section 4942 of the Code; and (ii) the corporation is prohibited from: (a) engaging in any act of self-dealing (as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code); (b) retaining any excess business holdings (as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code) which would subject the corporation to tax under Section 4943 of the Code; (c) making any investments in such manner so as to subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Code; and (d) making any taxable expenditures (as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code).
