- A. This Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation law for charitable purposes. The specific purpose of the corporation is to:
  - (1) To receive, administer and expend funds for charitable and educational purposes in connection with the promotion of (a) advancement of musical and artistic education and performance opportunities for the benefit of music, composition and artistic students, including both youth and adults by promoting, supervising and administering the programs of informal education and provision of performance opportunities and venues and which will provide opportunities for youth and adult students to realize their potential and to function effectively as caring, self-directed individuals who are responsible to themselves and to others; and (b) programs intended to advance the mental health of members within the community of persons providing health care services to the general public.
  - (2) To supply or arrange for the supply to members of this Corporation, of any items of equipment and merchandise used in connection with the activities and programs of the Corporation, provided that no part of the income of this Corporation from any of its activities shall inure to the benefit of any person or persons having a private interest in the activities of the Corporation, except that officers, members, and the employees of the Corporation may receive reasonable compensation for service rendered in effecting one or more of the purposes of the Corporation.

B. This Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation, and this Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

V

- A. No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as provided in Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office except as provided in Section 502(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- B. All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in Article IV, above. No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, trustees, officers, private shareholders or members, or to individuals.
- C. On the winding up and dissolution of this Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations and liabilities of this Corporation, the remaining assets of this Corporation shall be distributed to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes which have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law and which have established their tax-exempt status under Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code or the corresponding section of any future California revenue and tax law.
