The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent possible under California law.

The corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of agents (as defined in Section 317 of the California Corporations Code) through bylaw provisions, agreements with agents, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification otherwise permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporation' Code, subject only to the applicable limits set forth in Section 204 of the California Corporations Code with respect to actions for breach of duty, to the corporation and its shareholders.

Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the corporation existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.
