Additional Information to the Articles of Organization of 3900 3rd Street Housing, LLC

The following requirements are added to the Articles of Organization of 3900 3rd Street Housing, LLC (the "Company") in order to satisfy the organizational requirements for welfare exemption under Section 214 of the Revenue & Taxation Code:

1. The Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.
2. The Company is operated exclusively to further the charitable purposes of its member.
3. Each member of the Company shall be a qualifying organization. A qualifying organization is an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code and that qualifies for exemption under Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
4. The Company shall not transfer, directly or indirectly, any membership interest in the Company to any nonqualified person or entity.
5. The property owned by the Company is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes.
6. Upon dissolution of the Company, all assets shall be distributed to an organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or under Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
7. Any amendments to the Articles of Organization and the Operating Agreement of the Company must be consistent with Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, the Company is prohibited from merging or converting into a for-profit entity.
9. The Company shall not distribute any assets to members who cease to be organizations described in Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
