ATTACHMENT TO AND MADE A PART OF THE LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION for HFH ORLAND LLC

The following requirements are added to the Articles of Organization of a Limited Liability Company of HFH ORLAND LLC (the "Limited Liability Company"):

1. The Limited Liability Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.
2. The Limited Liability Company is operated exclusively to further the tax exempt charitable purposes of its sole member to expand opportunities available to residents of every county of the United States of America who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating and provided decent, safe and sanitary housing for persons of low income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live; and to help relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare.
3. Each member of the Limited Liability Company must be an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701d of the California Revenue & Taxation Code ("Code") and must qualify for exemption under Section 214 of the Code ("Qualifying Organization").
4. No transfer, whether direct or indirect, of any membership interest in the Limited Liability Company, shall be made to any person or entity that is not a Qualifying Organization.
5. All property of the Limited Liability Company shall be irrevocably dedicated to the charitable purposes of expanding opportunities available to residents of every county of the United States of America who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating and providing decent, safe and sanitary housing for persons of low income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live; and to help relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare, consistent with the requirements for obtaining property tax exemption pursuant to Section 214 of the Code.
6. Upon dissolution of the Limited Liability Company, all assets shall be distributed to an organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214 of the Code, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or under section 23701d of the Code.
7. Any amendments to the Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement of the Limited Liability Company must be consistent with Section 214 of the Code.
8. To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, this Limited Liability Company is prohibited from merging or converting into a for-profit entity.
9. No assets of the Limited Liability Company shall be distributed to any member that ceases to be a Qualifying Organization.
