Limited Liability Company Articles of Organization (Form LLC-1)
For
IH 2900 S. Orange Los Angeles LLC

The following requirements are added to the Articles of Organization of IH 2900 S. Orange Los Angeles LLC (the “Company”):

- (1) The Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes.
- (2) The Company is operated exclusively to further the tax exempt charitable purposes of its sole member to expand opportunities available to residents of every county of the United States of America, who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating and providing decent, safe and sanitary housing for persons of low income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live; and to help relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare.
- (3) Each member of the Company must be an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701d of the California Revenue & Taxation Code (“Code”) and must qualify for an exemption under Section 214 of the Code (“Qualifying Organization”).
- (4) No transfer, whether direct or indirect, of any membership interest in the Company, shall be made to any person or entity that is not a Qualifying Organization.
- (5) All property of the Company shall be irrevocably dedicated to the charitable purpose of expanding opportunities available to resident of every county of the United States of America, who are substantially unemployed, underemployed, or whose income is below federal poverty guidelines, to obtain adequate low-cost housing accommodations by constructing, rehabilitating and providing decent, safe and sanitary housing for persons of low income who otherwise would not be able to find or afford a suitable place to live; and to help relieve the poor, distressed, underprivileged and indigent by enabling them to secure the basic human needs of decent shelter and to thus lessen the burdens of government and promote the social welfare, consistent with the requirements for obtaining property tax exemption pursuant to Section 214 of the Code.
- (6) Upon dissolution of the Company, all assets shall be distributed to an organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214 of the Code, and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal revenue Code, or under Section 23701d of the Code.

(7) Any amendments to the Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement of the Company must be consistent with Section 214 of the Code.

(8) To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption, the Company is prohibited from merging with or converting into a for-profit entity.

(9) No assets of the Company shall be distributed to any member that ceases to be a Qualifying Organization.
