LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION. The liability of directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law. The corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of (and advancement of expenses to) agents (as defined in § 317(a) of the California Corporations Code) for breach of duty to the corporation and its stockholders through bylaw provisions, agreements with such agents or other persons, vote of the shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification and advancement otherwise permitted by § 317 of the California Corporations Code and any other applicable provision of law. If applicable law is amended after approval by the shareholders of this Article to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director to the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as so amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall only be prospective and shall not affect the rights or protections or increase the liability of any director or other agent under this Article in effect at the time of the alleged occurrence of any act or omission to act giving rise to liability or indemnification.
