I.

The Frisc Foundation (the "Corporation") is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any successor federal tax laws) (the "Code").

The Corporation is formed for charitable purposes including, without limitation, receiving contributions of money and property and using its income and principal assets exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, and educational purposes, either directly or by making gifts, grants and contributions to organizations, including, but not limited to, those that are described in Code Section 501(c)(3).

Solely for the above purposes, the Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of California upon nonprofit public benefit corporations, including, without limitation, to receive gifts, devises, bequests and contributions in any form, and to use, apply, invest and reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom or distribute the same for the above purposes.

II.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation (a) exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), or (b) to which contributions are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2).

III.

The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes meeting the requirements for exemption provided by Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code (or the corresponding provisions of any successor California tax laws), except that the Corporation is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article I hereof.

- (e) will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Code Section 4945(d).
