Purpose

Madhusudan Sivasankar (also known as Madhu Pandit Dasa) and Chandrashekar Srirangapatnam (also known as Chanchalapathi Dasa) the Founder Chairman and Founder Vice Chairman respectively of The Akshaya Patra Foundation – the world's largest NGO engaged in providing mid-day meals in India – are desirous of leveraging their extensive experience to establish a similar charity in the United States of America. To this end, they hereby form an independent foundation named "Sattvic Meals Foundation" to engage in charitable activities and distribute free food to the needy. The Corporation aims to raise funds from the general public, government and private foundations through various programs, including annual giving, deferred giving, and capital fund drives, to support these charitable endeavors. The Corporation may also engage in any other activities that are incidental or related to the foregoing purposes or that further its exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).
