Empowering Underserved Entrepreneurs

OC Business Program is a nonprofit organization dedicated to assisting underserved populations and people of color in establishing and growing their businesses. Our comprehensive support includes guidance on business formation, marketing, social media, and content creation, tailored for those who cannot afford these services. We leverage the expertise of volunteers from established businesses, students, and sponsors to deliver business education, budgeting classes, and best practices. Additionally, we offer networking events and mentorship opportunities to ensure the success of emerging entrepreneurs. Our mission is to build a robust and inclusive business community for the future.
