Additional Information:

Each member of this Company shall be a "Qualified Organization" which shall mean an organization that is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code and that qualifies for exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. Each "Qualifying Organization" shall have a valid, unrevoked letter from the Internal Revenue Service or the Franchise Tax Board, stating that it qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or under Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

Each member is prohibited from transferring, directly or indirectly, its member interest to any person or entity which is not a Qualified Organization.

The Limited Liability Company is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and exclusively to further the following specific charitable purposes of its members as specified in Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code: (1) to provide housing for low income persons, where no adequate housing exists for such groups; and (2) to serve as a general partner in a limited partnership which owns and operates housing for the benefit of low income persons who are in need of affordable, decent, safe and sanitary housing and related services. Any amendments to the articles of organization shall be consistent with the exempt purposes as specified in Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

All real and personal property owned by the Company shall be owned by and in the name of the Company and is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes as set forth in Sections 214 or 214.01 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. No member shall have any ownership interest in such property in its individual name or right.

No distribution shall be made to any member which ceases to be a Qualified Organization.

Upon dissolution of the Company, all assets of the Company shall be distributed to an entity organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, as specified in Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, and which has established tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or under Section 23701(d) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, for the purpose of qualifying for the Welfare Exemption under the rules of the California Board of Equalization, this limited liability company is prohibited from merging or converting into a for-profit entity.
