ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law.

The corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of agents (as defined in Section 317 of the California Corporations Code) for breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders through bylaw provisions or through agreements with the agents, or through shareholder resolutions, or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification otherwise permitted by Section 317 of the California Corporations Code, subject to the limits on such excess indemnification set forth in Section 204 of the California Corporations Code.

Any repeal or modification of the provisions mentioned above shall not adversely affect any right to indemnification of an agent or limitation of liability of a director of this corporation relating to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law, and all rights and powers conferred by these Articles of Incorporation on shareholders, directors and officers are granted subject to this reservation.
