Corporation: A New Beginning – A Place Called Home

Document: Additional Statements

This corporation is being established to provide charitable, educational and services to vulnerable communities. Such purposes include services targeted for the homeless, underserved and at-risk population, and justice involved youth, especially children, youth and young adults. Charitable and public services include, but are not limited to, mental health services, academic support, career preparation, and youth empowerment events.

We envision a world where youth in vulnerable communities have equal access to supportive services to reach their purpose and goals.

Providing services to vulnerable communities, our support will include, but is not limited to, donations, trained professionals, and volunteers.
